Honorable John McMahon
Deputy Director of Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear John:

Thank you for meeting with the Leadership St. Pete group from the St. Petersburg Chamber of Commerce which I was hosting in Washington last week.

Those who attended were most appreciative for the opportunity to discuss the Central Intelligence Agency and Central America and the Middle East with you and your staff, and I am grateful for your taking time to speak with my constituents.

Again, thank you, and with best wishes, I am

Very truly yours,

C. W. Bill Young
Member of Congress

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: George V. Lauder
Director, Public Affairs Office

SUBJECT: Your Meeting with Congressman C. W. Young (R., FL)
Constituents

1. Action Required: None. Background information only.

2. Background:

a. You are scheduled to address approximately 18 Chamber of Commerce members from St. Petersburg and one staff member from Congressman C. W. Bill Young's (R., FL) office in the DCI Conference Room at 1:00 p.m. Tuesday, 29 May. A/DDI Dick Kerr will follow you. During the week Congressman Young's constituents will also be briefed by representatives from the Department of Treasury, ACTION, the Supreme Court, the Marine Corp, the National Security Council, the Civil Aeronautics Board, the Congressional Budget Office, and the Ambassador from Saudi Arabia.

b. As you indicated, you will give a 15-20 minute talk on "The World Trouble Spots," allowing for questions and answers within this time frame. You can then turn the group over to Dick Kerr at about 1:20 p.m., and you need not remain. Mr. Kerr will speak on Central America and the Middle East. The briefing is unclassified.

c. This Chamber of Commerce group is composed of professional people and financial leaders from St. Petersburg. See attached list. No media will attend. They are all members of the Leadership Program in St. Petersburg. A program designed to train community members to take over leadership roles. The Congressman meets with them in Florida as part of the curriculum. Visiting Washington gives them the opportunity to meet with key people and an exposure to what is happening at the Federal level.
